For most people, the easiest and least expensive solution to updating a kitchen is to have the old surfaces finished with the newest materials and colors.

If your kitchen countertops and backsplash are still in good condition but have seen better days, consider refinishing rather than going through the messy and expensive job of replacing them.

As a full-service refinisher, Miracle Method can repair and restore porcelain, acrylic, fiberglass, ceramic, laminated and cultured marbled surfaces on countertops, backsplashes, tubs, showers, sinks, walls and floors, saving clients up to 70 percent of the replacement cost.

Jim and Flo Shepherd were looking to update their kitchen without going through the expense of a full remodel. They wanted something different for the countertops and backsplash in their 46-year-old home.

“I was going to do it myself,” explained Jim, referring to replacing the countertops. “I priced granite, but as I got into it, I realized I was going to have more money than just the price of the granite wrapped up into the project.”

He found that Miracle Method’s process was going to be a lot cheaper.

“I liked the way they presented themselves; they were very professional,” he added.

“The workers took extra care to prep it right,” Jim said. “They
